

The current language regarding how many faculty may serve on "selection committees" is found in BP 8700: Faculty Hiring and AP 8800: Adjunct Employment Search Procedures.

E. Currently BP 8700 allows for 3 or 4 faculty on a full-time faculty selection committee.

- For full-time faculty, BP 8706 currently states – “The selection committee shall consist of at least a majority of faculty. The selection committee shall be composed of at most: a. Three (3) faculty members appointed by the Academic Senate in consultation with the faculty of the discipline, one (1) of whom shall be the department/division chair, if any, and one (1) area administrator appointed by the College President; or Four (4) or more faculty members appointed by the Academic Senate in consultation with the faculty of the discipline, one (1) of which shall be the department/division chair, if any, and up to two (2) administrators appointed by the College President, one (1) of which shall be the area administrator; b. Additional members as agreed upon by the College President and the Academic Senate President.”
- Proposal: The selection committee shall be composed of at most: a. Six (6) faculty members appointed by the Academic Senate in consultation with the faculty of the discipline, one (1) of whom shall be the department/division chair, if any, and one (1) area administrator appointed by the College President.

F. Adjunct Hiring Committee

- For part-time faculty, AP 8802 currently states "The committee consists of the faculty chair and the appropriate educational administrator or designee. A second faculty member may be included if agreed upon by both the faculty chair and the educational administrator."
- Proposal: "The committee consists of the faculty chair and the appropriate educational administrator or designee. Up to three (3) additional faculty members may be included if agreed upon by both the faculty chair and the educational administrator."
