Senate of the Bakersfield College Student Government Association Agenda

Students don't understand what BCSGA does and going out to the different campuses will give them access to what we do.

Being a representative of the student means connecting with our other students and campuses.

Manager Griepsma- can we set up SGA and other campuses

Maddex- maybe have senators that are assigned to different campuses to represent them.

Manager Jayasena- is there a method of communication to give to the different campus to encourage students to be a representative to our other campuses

Maddex- create a qr code to ask students what they need at our other campuses

Senator Turner- would you be open to allowing me come to your classroom and talk to your students about my office hours

Maddex- use your office hours to be at the different campuses

Senator leon- can we do a post of who is having office hours at the different campuses, we could also look into recruiting student ambassadors

Manager Jayasena- can we appoint executive officers to go to different campuses and talk to students in class

Maddex- talk to leo Ocampo and he will be able to speak to professors

Director Pogue- elections are coming up and we could table at other campuses

Maddex- start setting the groundwork so that future BCSGA members to keep this going

Manager Mendez- how do we hold meetings outside

Maddex- this brings many opportunities for you as leaders

Matt Riley- brought a spring semester sport schedule for students

Has purchased 3000 to be distributed around campus

22nd home softball game to recognize highschool softball coaches and appreciate them with awareness of what they do

March 29th Pack the house- giving away youth jerseys

Working with local restaurants to do giveaways at the games , will also be live streaming before the game with some interviews

At the last meeting we discussed having athletics come out and promote their games passing out flyers to students

We are trying to highlight one game every 2 weeks

Manager Jayasena- we have activities meeting where we plan events we would love to have athletics attend the
