

I want to be apart of Bakersfield College student government as I want to be the voice of the voiceless and be able to make changes and speak out for my community, as a Transgender Man alot of people have biased options but I want to make sure that no matter the gender identity, sexual orientation, race and religion,that the constitution provides right,justice and respect for everyone.