Advisor Ayala: This is something students have strong feelings about. There is a safety aspect, but some people view it as a surveillance state sort of thing. Ensure you get a lot of student input.

Manager Dexter: Somebody mentioned to me yesterday that no cameras are safety concerns, as many people get assaulted.

Advisor Ayala: Maybe the larger question is, do students feel safe on campus? How safe do they feel safe? As cameras don't automatically ensure safety.

d. Director of Student Organizations, Abigail Tamayo

We have an event coming up this Saturday, for find your classroom. We'll be here at 8:30 to showcase how it's done, we'll be going until 12:30.

Advisor Ayala: We do have two people who will be working IDs on Saturday.

e. Student Orgs Funding Manager, Cecil Dexter

Had our first registration and renewal event today. It went very well.

f. Director of Student Activities, Isabel Saldivar

Nothing besides Welcome Weeks.

h. Director of Public Relations, Julianna Gonzalez

i. KCCD Student Trustee, Johanna Guzman

If anyone is doing IDs, ensure you are checking for Student Services fees. Many are already paid off. Student who works with Financial Aid was attempting to appeal, on their end it looks like an error. But they are going through.

Advisor Ayala: We are recreating the Student Services sticker promotional video, filming will take place next week. She is also developing an ad for the fanny packs, to incentivise for picking up their sticker. Those that were left over from NSC. We are also adding digital stamps to our social media posts, "paid for by Student Services". The big thing is to ensure they know what the Student Services Fee is.

7. OLD BUSINESS

Items listed have not already been discussed and thus are considered for Senate consideration.

a. DISCUSSION: New Student Convocation

President Miranda: Thank you all for being there. One thing, I got mixed up with my jobs, as there were some holes people had to fill up. Your sheet was helpful, but when things started falling apart, it got hectic.

Director Tamayo: Same with me, I had to stay back as there was no one to take over the SGA tabling. We talked to a lot of students, and introduced them to SGA. We talked about the Pantry, and the other Student Life services.

Miranda: We did promotion for Town Halls as well. We hope to get a lot of people.

Manager Dexter: From a tabling perspective, I thought it was incredibly successful. Clubs garnered so much interest.

Miranda: Many students have lots of enthusiasm, so it might be worth to recruit them.

Advisor Ayala: For next year, we'll stick to lesser food items. We had such a great turnout, but not as many made it to the outdoor theatre.

Manager Dexter: It would be nice to promote the performances more as well.

Advisor Ayala: Maybe we can put out A-frames for the main program during the resource fair.

Remind our tabling people to advertise the performances as well.

Saldivar: It would be a good idea to have somebody leading people from parking lots, to the check in tables.

Advisor Ayala: Maybe we can have two check in tables next year.

Director Guzman: Maybe everything can be put into a packet as well, some people had bracelets but not their scavenger hunt paper or things like that.

Palmbach: Props to our cheerleaders for helping with the food lines.

b. DISCUSSION: KCCD Retreat

President Miranda: The retreat went really well. Can we get the SSCCC slides?

Advisor Ayala: I can ask.

Director Palmbach: We can get the little cards with 9+1 / 10+1 rights.

President Miranda: The prior days of training it made it feel longer than it was.

Advisor Ayala: The in person experience is mostly about the time you spend together. The actual content could've been a zoom meeting.

c. DISCUSSION: Town Hall

President Miranda: We confirmed it will be in CC232.. We're gonna do presentations, more Kahoots. The format will be like an agenda, but in slides.

Vice President Anguiano: Be sure to answer the questions for the slides. We also have the panel questions for you to prepare, they were emailed.

President Miranda: If you can't attend this town hall, you MUST attend in the spring.

Director Saldivar: Make sure to make it a priority to stand up in classes and discuss town hall and welcome weeks
