Please explain in detail why you are requesting a refund. A minimum 75 word statement is needed. *

I didn't know I was paying for this and I didn't know it was optional. I am an adult student and do not need these services. I'm not sure what else you want me to say. It seems strange to have a word minimum to request a refund of a service I did t know about and have never used. It's really difficult to get information from the office and with the large # of website you use to disseminate information to students it's difficult to ever really know what's going on.
