- a. David Fluhart: Last year, I started a club. We were in a grace period and our club was suddenly cut. I would say that we were treated badly. I would appreciate if the board would look over into this matter, and you can extend it any way you can/want. I could take this issue over to the Dean of Students and make it a big issue, but my recourse if to first bring it to you. It was the CFD, or the college financial debt club, or county financing debt think tank (CFD++). It was to essentially look to how to build funds. I could also get a federal elections commission letter to sue, but I won't do it.
