Latinas Unidas, a student group at Bakersfield College and Latina Leaders of Kern County are partnering to present a series of webinars on race and diversity relations in Kern County, starting Wednesday.

Throughout the series, local leaders will share their experiences and perspectives on race and diversity relations in Kern County, aiming to unify and strengthen our community in the interest of future generations.

The first webinar, in a series of three, will take place Wednesday, October 21 at 5:30 p.m. on Zoom.

These events are open to the public and Zoom information for each of the events is available through the Calendar on BC's Website.
