

Bakersfield College will accept coursework completed at the upper-division level from a regionally accredited college or university, limited to institutions within the United States and its territories, under the following conditions:

1. Courses from non-U.S. schools are not accepted.
2. Courses may be used to meet a non-ADT program/major requirement, a Bakersfield College General Education requirement, or a prerequisite.
3. Courses will be accepted for subject credit only; units will not be awarded.
4. Maximum subject credit for 12 upper division units will be allowed.
5. Courses will not be used to certify CSU GE or IGETC requirements.
