

Equal Opportunity Diversity Advisory Committee (EODAC) Agenda

1. Call to Order 11:10a.m.
The committee did not meet quorum. Proceeded with informational items.
2. Roll Call – Amanda Anguiano, Angela Williams, Carlos Rios, Gilbert Ayuk, Debra Thorson, Helen Acosta, Johnny Nieto, Marth Gonzalez, Rich McCrow, Venessa Reyes, Vikki Coffee
3. Good Welfare Concerns
We had 2300 students who enrolled in classes during Registration Rocks this year compared to last year where we did both auto enroll and Registration Rocks (only 200 fewer than with auto enroll). Additional workshops start Monday to help students who qualify for priority, and we'll continue training students to enroll themselves for open registration which starts April 17.

Wednesday, 4/11, 11am-2pm, there will be an open house for all CSS building programs including the Native American Initiative. We'll have drummers, entertainment and a great time.
4. Adoption of the Agenda –no quorum
5. Approval of the Minutes 3/22/24 meeting—no quorum
6. Co-chair report
Amanda: We have 4 members at the SSSCC conference this weekend, we will find out by this week if the Dream Center Resolution was passed. Student Leadership Awards are this Thursday and student elections will be closing on Thursday at 4:00 p.m, encourage students to vote on Canvas by April 11. SGA has a town hall next Tuesday 'Let's taco bout it' and on Wednesday an open forum with Dr. Fliger. We will discuss the police department with students as well. Joe Grubbs has come to Student Senate and we are having a conversation with students about it.
Gilbert: Our charge was approved by Academic Senate to move forward to college council without the footnote of objection.
7. Meet & Greet with Dr. Fliger update—May 3, 11am, regular meeting time. Rich will order food for the event. Asked that all EODAC members attend. Pull 1-2 things from our goals to share with the president.
8. Discussion: Forming a College Police Department—delayed due to lack of quorum
We had planned to develop a statement and send questions received to Director regarding the possible formation of a college police department with armed officer. Without quorum, discussion is tabled to April 19 meeting.
8. Committee Goals: Sub Committees continue to meet, looking at the possibility of having 1 business meeting a month and 1 subcommittee work team meeting per month.
9. DEIA Conference - Spring 2024 confirmed 4 people from EODAC will attend.
10. Adjournment
11. Next Meeting – Friday, April 19, 2024
